

Lazarus Weekend

Held at Christ The King Selma, Alabama

What is a Lazarus Weekend?

In John 11:38-44; 12:1-2, we have a beautiful picture of healing, freedom, and wholeness in the life of a believer. Jesus came to Lazarus and called him forth out of death into life. As an act of grace, Jesus restored to him the life he had lost. Even though he was alive, Lazarus was unable to fully enjoy the life he possessed for he was bound by grave clothes. These clothes were remnants of his death experience and they limited his freedom and quality of life. This was not Jesus' desire. He had not restored Lazarus to life only to see him struggle under bondage of grave clothes. Jesus intended Lazarus to be free, not just alive. It was only after Jesus ordered the grave clothes removed that Lazarus was able to freely live. Only then was he able to see Jesus clearly, rest in His presence, and enjoy His fellowship.

Like Lazarus, every Christian has been restored to life. Also like Lazarus, all of us come into the new Christian life still bound up by the grave clothes of the past. These can be emotional wounds (caused by others, trauma, etc.), unrepentant sin, unforgiveness, demonic oppression, etc. Only as these grave clothes are removed can the Christian experientially enjoy the resurrection life he possesses.

The Lazarus Weekend is the Body of Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit, removing from each other the grave clothes that keep us from walking in the fullness of Christ. This weekend is not an end in itself, it is simply the removing of barriers in our lives that hinder the life of Christ from coming forth in and through us. God has called us to walk in His Spirit all the days of our lives and the Weekend is intended to help make those days full of freedom and abundant life!

What happens during a Lazarus Weekend?

The weekend is designed so that you receive teaching and an individual prayer time to address your personal needs. You, along with the other participants and those ministering, will spend Thursday night and Friday receiving teachings focused on deliverance and inner healing. Friday evening all involved will eat supper together and then spend time in worship followed by a Generational Eucharist service. Saturday each participant receives individual prayer counseling with a team of 2-4 people in a private setting. Around 4:30, everyone meets back together for worship and Holy Communion. The Sunday morning service is the final session designed seal all that God has done in you over the weekend.

How can I become a participant?

You will need to fill out the application and have it signed by your priest/pastor then mail it with your registration fee of $125. Your application will be reviewed. Once your application is accepted, you will be contacted with the dates of the weekends that are available.

If you cancel 30 days prior to your weekend, you may transfer to another date or receive a full refund. After that point, we cannot refund the fee or transfer you to another date unless it is for a serious emergency and the refund will be half of the fee.

The fee covers the cost of five meals that the group will eat together but does not include the cost of lodging.

Some members of local churches open their homes to Lazarus participants. Please indicate on the application if you would like to stay in a home. You will be contacted to let you know if space is available.

If you are not staying in a home, you will need to make reservations at a local hotel of your choice at your expense.

Some Selma Accommodations:

Holiday Inn 334-874-1000

Hampton Inn 334-876-9995

Quality Inn 334-874-8600

Luxury Inn 334-872-0014 (formerly Days Inn, next door to the church)

In order for you to participate:

- You must be willing to allow the Holy Spirit to do His work in your life.
- You must have your priest or pastor's permission.
- You must be 18 or older.
- You must be able to attend ALL sessions (Thursday through Sunday).
- You must complete your Confidential Profile which you will receive a couple of weeks before your weekend. This profile will enable your prayer team to minister to you effectively. Please be transparent and open to the Holy Spirit as you fill it out. This profile will be kept in absolute confidence and will be destroyed after your session.

(Pregnant ladies are requested to attend at a later time.)
